

Voluntary treatment and mutual arbitration agreement

I the undersigned, hereby give my voluntary consent for the administration of medical treatment by the methods of Traditional Oriental Medicine. The techniques used will include, but are not limited to one or more of the following:

Acupuncture, electro-acupuncture, moxibustion, massage

I am aware that the use of these techniques, to which I am consenting, are not commonly practiced in this community. I acknowledge and have been informed that there are no guarantees promised through the use of these techniques. I have also read the cover sheet "Your Acupuncture Treatment Session" defining the above procedures.

It is agreed by all parties that any dispute, claim, allegation or law suit related to the treatment, care or professional services rendered under this agreement will be determined and adjudicated by submission to arbitration as provided by the American Arbitration Association, in accordance with Michigan law. All parties to this contract, by entering into it, agree that they are freely and voluntarily consenting to waving the right to have any such dispute decided in a court of law before a jury.
